

Weight Fighters To Get Assist At Food Giant

Food Giant Markets will give away 30 Stauffer Home Reducing Units to lucky prospective pound-losers in Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and Orange counties, beginning today.

One of the "Magic Couch" units will be given away in each of the fabulous Food Giant Markets. The lucky winners will also receive free professional analyses of their figure problems, free consultation with a trained Stauffer figure expert, and a free salon-type treatment at home, plus instruction in the use of the reducing unit.

THE STAUFFER "Magic Couch" is a passive exercise unit, invaluable whether used with the Stauffer Home Plan (included in prize) in weight reduction and correction of figure problems, or simply as an aid in relaxation. The Stauffer Home Plan, a "menu" for reducing includes a diet plan plus the "Magic Couch," which is used for firming and toning muscles and for posture improvement. The "Magic Couch" is on display in each Food Giant Market.

For a chance at winning the Stauffer Home Reducing Unit, customers need only to leave their names and addresses at any Food Giant Market. There is nothing to buy; drawings will be held on March 7 and winners, who need not be present at drawings, will be notified.

Rivieran In Speech Test

Thomas Eadie of Hollywood Riviera, speaking on the topic, "A Fellow Scotsman," was selected to represent the Southbay Toastmasters Club at area speech eliminations. Robert Norland of El Segundo, with a talk on "What Price Security," was second.

Five new members were inducted into the club last week at its regular Wednesday evening meeting at the Redondo Beach Elks Club. New members included James McDonald, James Hurley, James Ripple, George Goodson, and Donald Payne. Goodson and Payne are from Torrance; the other three from South Bay cities.

McDonald promptly won an impromptu speech contest on the subject, "How to Win at Table Topics."

The Wednesday club meetings begin at 6:45 p.m.

CRAFT CLASSES

Two craft classes for children are being offered at Alondra Park; one for children 7 to 9, is being held between 10 a.m. and noon each Saturday, and another for older children is conducted from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. each Saturday.

Classes for Mothers-to-Be Open Today

A health information class for mothers-to-be will begin today at 1 p.m. at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St., according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer, Los Angeles County Health Department.

The seven session class will be conducted by Mrs. Janice Mendoza, public health nurse. Films, demonstrations, and discussion are planned, said Mrs. Mendoza.

This educational service of the Department is planned to help parents meet the needs of pregnancy and to give parents insight into the physical and emotional needs of infants and growing children.

Films on child care and childbirth are featured together with demonstrations on such topics as formula preparation and baby baths.
